Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Violet "Vi" M. Engbrecht, who is retiring after a combined 56 years of service in public education; and,

Whereas, Since 1982, Vi has been an administrator for the Cornbelt Educational Cooperative serving as both the business manager and Medicaid billing agent; and,

Whereas, Prior to joining the Cornbelt Educational Cooperative, Vi served as the Marion School District's business manager; and,

Whereas, Vi consistently goes above and beyond expectations, and when called upon, she can be counted on to step up wherever needed in the organization; and,

Whereas, Vi is a shining example of the commitment of South Dakota and the education community, serving students, families, and their school districts; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan and congratulate her on her retirement and honor her for her service to the state of South Dakota and public education:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 30, 2017, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seventeen.

Dennis Daugaard
